Memorandum of Understanding between

Vellalar College for Women, Tamil Nadu

and

International Organisation for Tamil Malayalam Cultural Research, Kerala

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING is made and entered into on this February 2020 between Vellalar College for Women, Tamil Nadu (VCW) on the ONE PART and the International Organisation for Tamil Malayalam Cultural Research, Kerala on the OTHER PART (who for the purpose of this MoU are hereinafter individually referred to as 'PARTY' and collectively referred to as the 'PARTIES').

AND WHEREAS VCW is involved in education, research and training in arts, sciences and commerce

Vellalar College for Women, Tamil Nadu  International Organisation for Tamil Malayalam Cultural Research, Kerala

AND WHEREAS International Organisation for Tamil Malayalam Cultural Research is involved in education, research and culture.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants hereinafter contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Article 1. Objectives

- 1.1 To associate in providing innovative courses, faculty exchange training and research programmes at International Organisation for Tamil Malayalam Cultural Research and VCW
- 1.2 To collaborate in organizing seminars and workshops
- 1.3 To collaborate in conducting outreach programmes in the community.

Article 2. Implementation

- 2.1 The Parties agree to constitute an Implementation Committee comprising the following participants:
  - Dr. N.Maragatham, Principal, Vellalar College for Women
  - Dr. T.Vijayalakshmi, Director, International Organisation for Tamil Malayalam Cultural Research

Article 3. General Provisions

- 3.1 Based on the requirements the implementation committee shall, in consultation with the faculty and professionals, decide on program/event and the mode of cooperation during the tenure of this collaboration.
- 3.2 The institution organizing an item of work shall have the nodal responsibility for mobilizing resources and the conduct of such works.
- 3.3 Each party shall bear the respective costs of carrying out the obligations under this agreement. Neither party shall make a claim against the other party for any expenditure unless such expenditure has been agreed upon in writing between the parties.

3.4 Any dispute or difference arising between the Parties shall be settled by mutual agreement. The disagreements at the operating level shall be forwarded to the respective higher officials for appropriate resolution.

3.5 Nothing in this understanding is intended to affect other cooperation or collaboration between the parties.

Article 4. Tenure and Termination

4.1 This MoU shall come into force in February 20, 2020 upon signatures by the authorized signatories of the parties and shall be valid for two years. It may be amended by mutual written agreement and may be terminated at any time by either party upon one month's written notice to the other party.

4.2 All joint activities not completed at the expiration or termination of this understanding may be continued until their completion under the terms of this understanding.

Article 5. Amendments

5.1 This MoU represents the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes any and all understandings either oral or written hitherto with respect to the subject matter of this understanding.

5.2 No amendment or modification of the MoU shall be valid unless the same is made in writing by both the parties and specifically stating the same to be an amendment of the MoU. The modifications/changes shall become part of the MoU and shall be effective from the date on which they are executed, unless otherwise agreed to.

Article 6. Assignment

6.1 This MoU is based on the professional competence and expertise of each party and hence neither party shall transfer or assign this agreement, or rights or obligations arising hereunder, either wholly or in part, to any third party.

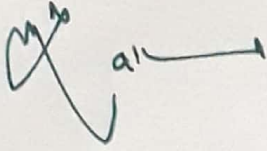

This MoU has been executed in two originals, one of which has been retained by VCW and the other by International Organisation for Tamil Malayalam Cultural Research.

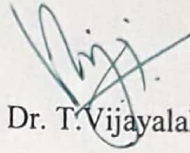

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this MoU and represent that they approve, accept and agree to the terms contained herein.

under the auspices and support of University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for the proposed

DIPLOMA COURSE ON BIO-DEGRADABLE SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT as Add-on carrier-oriented course at under graduate level.

Manonmani Vermi Farm is engaged in building Human Resource capacity in managing the Bio-degradable Solid Wastes of both Urban and Rural since from 1999. It has trained more than 800 personnel in converting the organic waste into beneficial Compost and Vermi-Compost.

Every year every city is accumulating thousands of tones of solid waste. Every town and city is facing severe problem in managing this waste, on the other hand millions of tones of agro waste burnt into ashes. Both these have great potential in changing the manures demand of Indian rural areas.

Honorable Supreme Court of India has made it mandatory to manage the urban solid waste in eco-friendly way and every Municipality and Corporations should follow it in word and sprit. However the problem every one facing is lack of trained persons. This Course is aimed at fulfilling this gap with needed technical and practical skills that will provide right candidates for the newly developing enterprise. This will also help the enterprising young in starting their own units

Our organisation agrees to assist the DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY of the institution,

- a). in designing, developing the course, preparing the learning materials and tools for the use of the lecturers and the students.
- b). in providing printed ( photo copies) and non printed materials available with Our Resource Centre.
- c). in providing guest faculty for teaching specific topics of the course, d). in providing facilities and faculties for carrying out the practical training under our direct supervision or jointly with the faculty of the institution.

e). in arranging guided educational tours and on-the job training whenever and wherever needed to acquire necessary skills to enhance the students performance in theory and practical work, field works.

f). in assisting the institution in the evaluation of the students' performance in both theory ,laboratory practicals field works and on the job training.

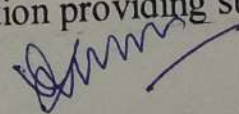

g). in arranging ,to the extend possible, job placements in private sector.

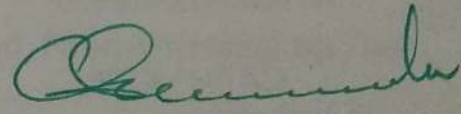

h).provide any other assistances that our institution is capable of in carrying out the course successfully.

The two institutions will mutually decide upon the implementation of the tasks mentioned above, other terms and conditions including the financial part.

We re-affirm our commitment of the programme and our willingness to make a consistent effort to ensure that the course is implemented effectivly and efficiently for the betterment of the students and the environment.

The parties collaborate, cooperate and interact to achieve the following scopes of this MOU.

1. The Parties intend to pursue collaboration on fundamental, academic research, conducting training programme and conference / seminars / workshops related to nature protection and biodiversity conservations.
2. Both parties exchange the technical expertise such as experimental procedures, instrumental knowledge and development of new protocols in the field of Botany.
3. Both parties agree to exchange the expertise of their working staff under mutual convenience when requested by either Parties. For example, NSF can request to utilize the expertise of Vellalar College for Women staff for their technical events. However, exchange of faculties or staff or scientist is to be done under mutual convenience of the Parties when such exchanges doesn't affect the normal functioning of the Parties. During Conferences, Seminars, Symposia and Workshops organized by either Parties, above mentioned exchange of working staff may avail with mutual concerns.
4. Both Parties agree to utilize their Laboratory Instrument Facilities without any payments.
5. Both Parties agree to develop collaborative research projects for submitting to various funding agencies.
6. Vellalar College for Women can give venues like laboratories and seminar halls to NSF to conduct Conferences, Seminars, Symposia and Workshops on mutual understandings.

3. Costs

Each Party will be responsible for its own costs in connection with all matters relating to collaborations under this MOU. Where possible and appropriate, the Parties may also seek funding for collaborations from other government and private agencies.

4. General Provisions

4.1 As stated above, any specific joint projects will be set forth in separate written agreements.

4.2 Treatment of intellectual property rights developed through collaborations under this MOU will be determined between the Parties through mutual consultation and separate written agreements on a case-by-case basis.

4.3. Publication credits of any kind arising as a result of this MOU shall be shared by both the Parties. The corresponding authors of the publications would be the Party which has prepared the manuscript. The publications as a result of this MOU will be made under mutual concerns of the Parties while either Parties are intimated Verbally.

5. Confidentiality

The parties agree that there is no intention to share any confidential or proprietary information in any collaboration under this MOU. If either Party wishes to disclose information it considers to be confidential or proprietary to the other Party, the Parties will enter into a written non-disclosure

This memorandum of understanding is made and entered into on the 10th July, 2019 between Confederation of Indian Industry, Young Indians (hereinafter referred as CII-Yi) and Vellalar College for Women (Autonomous), Erode-12 (hereinafter referred to as parties VCW).

Whereas

Vellalar College for Women (Autonomous), Erode is an educational institution founded by the Vellalar Educational Trust focuses primarily on Education affiliated to Bharathiar University.

And Whereas

Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) is a Society registered under Society Registration Act having its office at Mantosh Sondhi Centre, 23 Institutional Area, Lodi Road, New Delhi 110003. Young Indians (Yi) is an initiative and integral part of the CII formed with an objective of creating a platform for Young Indian's to realize the dream of a developed nation. It has over 2500 direct members in 42 city chapters, and indirect membership of 15000 through its Yuva. "To become the Voice of Young Indian's Globally" being the vision of Yi, it reaches out to the global Indians wherever they are to make them an integral part of the Indian Growth Story.

And Whereas

The CII-Yi Yuva platform is one of the most active focus areas within Young Indians by which Yi members engage students from across the country in various initiatives that the students conceptualize, plan and execute. The objective is to create a bridge, a platform for the students to work in cross functional teams with a broad objective of enhancing their leadership skills and giving back to the nation. In the process, the students work in leadership roles while operationalizing projects that are based on self-development, skill building, community service and nation building.

It is hereby mutually agreed to by both parties as follows

In tune with the Yuva vision to influence inspire and motivate millions of students across the country, Yi will work with Vellalar College for Women (Autonomous) by forming a Yi Yuva.

Through the CII Yi Yuva, Yi intends to provide an opportunity to start thinking and work for India, Sowing the seeds of thinking about India and its growth at schools and colleges, an invaluable motivation for young minds to see how other young achievers are making a difference, bridging potential with achievement, a unique networking opportunity with peers across the country, developing leaders for tomorrow, an experience on leadership and team building and an opportunity to volunteer / participate in Yi events at the chapter and national level.

The role of the institution would be to enroll a minimum of 50 students at the beginning of the year and increase the same substantially through the years that follow; that their contact details will be given on the day of their sign-up ; that it undertakes to follow the charter (attached), that it will depute a faculty/ teacher coordinator for the Yi Yuva whose role has been defined in the charter, that the students will be given the motivation and opportunities to engage in activities and initiatives that they conceptualize, that these students are to make reports regularly on their activities to the Yi Executive Member (also mentioned in the annexure) and that the students will be allowed to participate in the Yi National & Chapter events in other cities like the summit (finer details to be worked in coherence with the institution's policies)

The role of Yi will be to nominate a member from within its membership (called as Yuva Chair) who will be a mentor to the Yuva.

Customer and IBM agree that all discussions between the parties regarding a potential business arrangement are nonbinding unless and until the parties enter into a written, definitive agreement signed by their duly authorized representative, and neither party shall be obligated to enter into such an agreement.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") is intended to outline a proposed business relationship between IBM India Private Limited ("IBM") with Registered offices at 12, Subramanya Arcade , Bannerghatta Road, BANGALORE - 560 029 and Vellalar College for Women ("Customer") with offices located at Thindal, Erode.

WHEREAS, Customer and IBM have entered into discussions concerning IBM's provision of technology products and services for Customer;

WHEREAS, the parties anticipate that Customer will elect to engage IBM as the primary and preferred technology provider for IT hosting, hardware, software and services.

NOW, THEREFORE, in order to ensure that the discussions and evaluations between parties regarding the potential business relationship that is sought does not create any confusion or misunderstandings, the following items represent points that require the parties' agreement and will facilitate these evaluations and discussions.

1. Roles and Responsibilities

The proposed roles and responsibilities of the parties in connection with this proposed business relationship are described in Attachment 1

2. Termination

This MOU will terminate on 3 years from the date of MoU signing unless extended or terminated earlier. If at any time any party wishes to withdraw from further evaluations and discussions in connection with the subject matter of this MOU and terminate this MOU, it may do so with or without cause and without liability by providing the other party with written notice of its intention to withdraw from further evaluation and discussions. All discussions, proposals, term sheets, draft agreements and other similar materials will be null and void if evaluations and discussions are terminated. This MOU can be extended upon written agreement of the parties.

3. Confidentiality

The existence and substance of this MOU and the provision of services contemplated hereby will be kept confidential and will not be disclosed to any party hereto to any third party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any party may make such public disclosure as it believes, on the advice of counsel, is required by law or by applicable stock exchange regulations, in which case such party will consult with the other party and gain such party's written approval prior to making such disclosure.

The parties acknowledge that the exchange of confidential information by Customer and IBM in connection with this MOU will be governed by the terms and conditions of that certain Agreement for Exchange of Confidential Information, attached hereto as Attachment 2.

Customer Memo of Understanding

Handwritten signature and date: 24.12.2019

4. Limitation of Liability

The parties agree that (i) the activities intended by this MOU may not be successfully completed; (ii) the results achieved may not be as anticipated; and (iii) these activities may not lead to any announced or generally available or limited offering. Any decision by any party to forego, or engage any other business opportunity, to alter or supplement any business plan of direction, or to make any investment in anticipation of the consummation of any transaction contemplated hereunder, is at the sole discretion of the party electing to do so, and will not create any actual or potential liability or any obligation for the other party, even if that party is aware of, or has been informed of, or has indicated approval of, any such action, decision, or election.

Except for a breach of Articles 3 or 5, for any claim in any way related to the subject matter of this MOU, the damaged party shall not be entitled to recover any actual and direct damages unless and until a definitive agreement has been signed. This will apply regardless of the form of action, whether in contract or in tort, including negligence. This limitation will not apply to claims for bodily injury or damage to real property or tangible personal property for which a party is legally liable. In no event will either party be liable for any lost profits, lost savings, incidental damages, or other economic consequential damages, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. In addition, neither party will be liable for any damages claimed by the other party based on any third party claim.

5. Publicity

IBM and Customer each agrees not to use the trademarks, trade names, services marks or other proprietary marks of the other party to this MOU in any advertising, press releases, publicity matters, or other promotional materials without prior written approval of the other party. In addition each party agrees not to initiate or distribute any press releases, publicity matters or other promotional materials related to or referencing the subject matter of this MOU without prior written approval of the other party.

6. Governing Law

This Memorandum of Understanding shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India, without regard to its conflict of laws provision.

7. General

Nothing contained in this MOU will be deemed to grant any ownership in, or license to, any patents, inventions, copyrights or trademarks of either party, whether made under this MOU or not. Each party will own any intellectual property created by it during the period of the MOU. In case a party wants to use the other party's intellectual property as created above for internal purposes, it would have to acquire appropriate licenses and rights from the other party, under a separate agreement. Each party will continue to own any pre-existing material contributed by it.

It is understood that this MOU does not purport to cover all aspects of this business relationship.

This MOU supersedes all prior proposals and discussions on this subject and is the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the parties. This MOU cannot be modified except by a written agreement signed by the authorized representative of each of the Customer and IBM companies. Any reproduction of this MOU by reliable means will be considered an original of this document.

Each party will be responsible for its own expenses in connection with these discussions. Except as set forth herein, there are no restrictions on either party as a result of these discussions and either party is free to pursue a similar business relationship with others at any time.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT
VELLALAR COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, AUTONOMOUS
AND
KRISTU JAYANTI COLLEGE, AUTONOMOUS

I. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This agreement is made and entered between Vellalar College for Women (Autonomous), Erode ("VCW") and Kristu Jayanti College, Autonomous ("KJC") located in Bangalore, Karnataka, India.
- 1.2 Whereas, the participating parties believe that the educational opportunities for their students and the professional opportunities for their academic staff would be enhanced by national level academic and scientific cooperation;
- 1.3 Whereas, the purpose of this agreement is to establish a framework within which academic and scientific cooperation may develop between Vellalar College for Women and KJC to provide participating students, faculty and staff with an opportunity to study, teach and research, and benefit from the academic and cultural environment of partner institution;
- 1.4 Whereas this agreement shall be identified as the parent document of any specific program agreements between the parties; Now, therefore, the parties agree as follows:
- 1.5 The parties to this agreement indicate their willingness in principle to cooperate in the promotion of teaching and research activities subject to entering into a separate legal agreement where applicable. Under this agreement, the types of cooperation may include:
  - 1.5.1 Reciprocal exchange of students;
  - 1.5.2 Hosting of short-term programs;
  - 1.5.3 Reciprocal exchange of staff and faculty;
  - 1.5.4 Joint academic programs;
  - 1.5.5 Collaborative research projects;
  - 1.5.6 Collaborative professional faculty and staff development activities; and
  - 1.5.7 Other activities as mutually agreed.
- 1.6 The scope of the activities under this agreement shall be determined by the funds regularly available at both institutions for the types of collaboration specified in the supplemental agreements, and by the amount of financial resources obtained by either institution from external sources. Each institution shall be responsible for expenses incurred by its employees and/or students under this agreement, except as may be stipulated in any supplemental agreements.

- 1.7 The persons designated to coordinate activities under this agreement are the Principal, Vellalar College for Women and the Director of Academic Alliance at KJC.

II. STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM

1. Definitions

For the purpose of this agreement, the follow definitions will be used:

- 1.1 Exchange Student – a student who pays his/her regular tuition and fees at “home institution” for the duration of the exchange and receives tuition and fee waiver from the “host institution”.
- 1.2 Home Institution – the educational institution in which a student is formally enrolled as a degree candidate.
- 1.3 Host Institution – the educational institution that has agreed to receive the participating students from the “home institution” for a limited period of study on a non-degree basis.

2. Academic Coordination

The responsibilities for persons designated to coordinate student exchange and study abroad programs entail the following:

- 2.1 Overseeing the selection of participating students;
- 2.2 Facilitating academic matters for the students received by the host institution;
- 2.3 Providing assistance to enrolling incoming students; and
- 2.4 Serving as liaison between the two institutions.

3. Guidelines

- 3.1 Vellalar College for Women and KJC shall review the exchange program annually for any imbalances in the number of exchange students and shall adjust the numbers as necessary to maintain a well-balanced program.
- 3.2 The overall balance of participating students from each institution shall be maintained over the period of the agreement. Both institutions, by mutual consent, will determine the number of students they may receive in any given year.

- 3.3 This exchange is for undergraduate and graduate/post-graduate students who have completed at least one year of undergraduate study or one semester for graduate students, and all students shall demonstrate adequate academic preparation, maturity, and emotional stability to undertake academic exchange. Exchange students shall undertake an academic program at the host institution, whether that host institution is VCW or KJC, as full-time non-degree-seeking students.
- 3.4 The supervision and examination of graduate/post-graduate exchange students shall be negotiated on an individual basis by faculty Exam Controllers at VCW and KJC.
- 3.5 Exchange student status and responsibilities:
- 3.5.1 Exchange students shall register in the courses that their home institutions approve, as long as they do not pose any challenge to the host institution. All students shall maintain full-time enrollment status.
- 3.5.2 Participating students shall pay all applicable tuition fees at their home institution and the students shall receive these benefits at the host institution without additional charges.
- 3.5.3 Participating students shall cover the cost of their meals and housing at host institution.
- 3.5.4 Some classes incur extra cost for materials and/or transportation (some technology classes and some sports classes, for example); in this case, the individual student enrolled in those courses will be required to pay those additional costs.
- 3.6 The home institution shall nominate participating students on the basis of academic merit and other criteria as may be agreed upon by both institutions. The host institution reserves the right to make final judgment on the admissibility of each student nominated by the home institution.
- 3.7 Participating students shall maintain a full-load of study as defined by the host institution. The host institution shall immediately inform the home institution if the participating student drops out of school or stops attending classes completely.
- 3.8 Participating students shall be given identification cards and shall have the same access to the facilities of the host institution as enjoyed by students of the host institution.
- 3.9 At the end of the study period, the host institution shall provide the home institution with a transcript report of the courses and grades received by each student not later than six weeks after the last day of the study programme.

III HOSTING OF SHORT-TERM PROGRAMME

Parties agree to help facilitating short-term faculty-led programs in their institution. The purpose of the short term programme will be assisting a batch of students either from VCW or KJC to do short term programme/certificate programme/ exposure programme in host institution. The programme will be designed by home institution and subsequently approved by host Institution. The arrangement may include facilitating housing, transportation, cultural excursions, guest lectures, classrooms, on-site facilitators, local arrangements, meetings to relevant organizations and individuals, orientation and advice on health and safety precautions, and general on-site orientation.

- 1 Short Term programme status and responsibilities.
  - 1.1 The maximum number of students for short term programme at a time is limited to 20.
  - 1.2 A faculty member will always accompany the batch for short term programme.
  - 1.3 The duration of short term programme falls within the range of two to three weeks.
- 2 The programme structure will be discussed mutually on individual basis and approved by both parties.
- 3 The exchange students shall bear all expenses related to housing, transportation, cultural excursion. But any expenses related to academic inputs will be met by host institution.
- 4 At the end of short term programme, host institution shall provide certificates depending upon the programme they attended.

IV FACULTY/STAFF EXCHANGE PROGRAM

1. Whenever feasible, both VCW and KJC agree to engage their respective faculty/staff in short-term exchanges for teaching, research or collaborative project activities.
2. Financial resources for the implementation of the faculty/staff exchange activities are dependent upon financial availability at each institution and externally generated funds. Neither party is obligated to expend any resources in connection with this faculty/staff exchange.
3. The specific nature of the faculty/staff exchanges may vary; however, unless otherwise noted, the following arrangement shall be made:
  - 3.1 The host institution agrees to provide housing for exchange faculty/staff.
  - 3.2 While participating in the exchange program, the visiting faculty/staff shall continue to receive salary and benefits from the home institution.
  - 3.3 The home institution or the visiting faculty or staff shall be responsible for arranging and covering the cost of transportation to the host institution.
4. The period of the exchange visit of any faculty/staff shall not exceed one semester or six months.

5. Exchange faculty/staff shall be subject to the host institution's rules, regulations, and policies. The host institution will orient exchange faculty/staff to pertinent rules. An exchange faculty/staff member accused of violating rules or policies shall have same due process right accorded to faculty and staff at the host institution. The home institution shall withdraw the faculty/staff member from the exchange assignment upon request by the host institution.

V TERM, TERMINATION, AMENDMENT, RENEWAL, AND CONFLICT RESOLUTION

- 1.1 This agreement shall become effective on the date of its signing by both parties, continue thereafter for five (5) years subject to revision or modification by mutual written agreement and shall terminate automatically at the end of such period unless 180 days prior to termination, the parties provide written notice to each other of their intention to renew the agreement for an additional three-year term.
- 1.2 Either party may terminate this agreement at any time. Termination by one party shall be effected by giving the other party at least 180-day advance written notice of its intention to terminate, but any students who have commenced at either university at the date of termination may complete their course of study. Termination shall be without penalty.
- 1.3 Any amendment to this agreement shall be made only with written agreement by both institutions.
- 1.4 This agreement is signed in good faith and in accordance with the administrative rules and procedures governing each party. Therefore, by virtue of this good faith, any conflict that may arise with respect to its interpretation, formalization, and fulfilment will be resolved by agreement between the two parties.
- 1.5 Neither party shall use the other institution's name, or any name or trademark in any form, including advertising, promotion or sales literature except in the website of home institution without first obtaining the written consent of the other institution. Neither party shall assign or purport to assign any right under this agreement without the prior written approval of the other party.

AND WHEREAS St. Joseph's College for Women is involved in education, research and training in sciences, arts and commerce.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants hereinafter contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Article 1. Objectives

- 1.1 To associate in providing innovative courses, student and faculty exchange training and research programmes at St. Joseph's College for Women and VCW
- 1.2 To collaborate in organizing seminars and workshops
- 1.3 To collaborate in conducting outreach programmes in the community

Article 2. Implementation

- 2.1 The Parties agree to constitute an Implementation Committee comprising the following participants:
  - Dr. N. Maragatham, Principal, Vellalar College for Women
  - Dr. Sheena George, Principal, St. Joseph's College for Women

Article 3. General Provisions

- 3.1 Based on the requirements the implementation committee shall, in consultation with the faculty and professionals, decide on program/event and the mode of cooperation during the tenure of this collaboration.
- 3.2 The institution organizing an item of work shall have the nodal responsibility for mobilizing resources and the conduct of such works.
- 3.3 Each party shall bear the respective costs of carrying out the obligations under this agreement. Neither party shall make a claim against the other party for any expenditure unless such expenditure has been agreed upon in writing between the parties.
- 3.4 Any dispute or difference arising between the Parties shall be settled by mutual agreement. The disagreements at the operating level shall be forwarded to the respective higher officials for appropriate resolution.

3.5 Nothing in this understanding is intended to affect other cooperation or collaboration between the parties.

Article 4. Tenure and Termination

4.1 This MoU shall come into force in February 20, 2020 upon signatures by the authorized signatories of the parties and shall be valid for two years. It may be amended by mutual written agreement and may be terminated at any time by either party upon one month's written notice to the other party.

4.2 All joint activities not completed at the expiration or termination of this understanding may be continued until their completion under the terms of this understanding.

Article 5. Amendments

5.1 This MoU represents the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes any and all understandings either oral or written hitherto with respect to the subject matter of this understanding.

5.2 No amendment or modification of the MoU shall be valid unless the same is made in writing by both the parties and specifically stating the same to be an amendment of the MoU. The modifications/changes shall become part of the MoU and shall be effective from the date on which they are executed, unless otherwise agreed to.

Article 6. Assignment

6.1 This MoU is based on the professional competence and expertise of each party and hence neither party shall transfer or assign this agreement, or rights or obligations arising hereunder, either wholly or in part, to any third party.

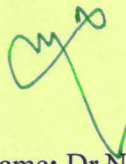

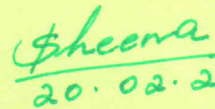

This MoU has been executed in two originals, one of which has been retained by VCW and the other by St. Joseph's College for Women.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this MoU and represent that they approve, accept and agree to the terms contained herein.

The NCVRT center of the College offers 15 courses to help students develop a professional career in their field of interest. Apart from imparting quality higher education, the College also promotes research activities and develops Entrepreneurial skills of students through the 6 Centers of Excellence established in the campus.

ii) GOBI ARTS & SCIENCE COLLEGE

Gobi Arts & Science College, Gobichettipalayam, an autonomous, co-educational, grant-in-aid College, affiliated to Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, was established in 1968 with the noble objective of opening the doors of higher education to the first generation students of rural areas. The unique philosophy and principle cherished by the Management of the college to admit students strictly on merit basis, abhorring the concept of collecting donations or capitation fees, fully recognizing the difficulties of the students who belong to the socially and economically deprived sections of the society, has earned the goodwill of the public. The College enjoys the

The college is Supported by the Department of Science and Technology (DST) under FIST Scheme. The college has been selected as a Mentor institution under the UGC - Paramarsh Scheme.

VELLALAR COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Vellalar College for Women established by Philanthropists of Vellalar Educational Trust in 1970 to educate and empower the first generation women scholars of the locale has passed many groundbreaking milestones and forged benchmarking traditions eventually evolving into the eye of conscience of the society. With a sizeable students strength of 6,300 in the undergraduate, post-graduate and research programmes in aided and unaided sections, the institution espouses the cause of 'Education for Life'. The institution's cogent vision and mission of consummate scholastic service has enabled it to evolve into College with Potential for Excellence in 2010 and currently accorded with the Phase II of CPE funds. Conferred with the status of autonomy in 2007 and re- accredited by NAAC with 'A' grade in 2015 in the third cycle with the CGPA of 3.43, the institution continues to equip the students with academic, entrepreneurial, intellectual, moral, spiritual and physical credentials to lead a purposeful life. The institution has the pride of obtaining 57th rank and 72nd rank by NIRF 2018 and 2019 respectively and obtained 86th rank in India Today Ranking (Commerce Stream). VCW has been approved as mentor institution under the scheme of 'PARAMARSH' for mentoring NAAC Accreditation Aspirant institutions.
