The PG and Research Department of English is always focused on quality work and consistent performance, thereby to broaden the learners' knowledge and expand opportunities to leap into the world of professionals. Apposite to this, the CPE fund has been put into premium consumption blended with utility, creativity and technicality. ICT enabled teaching has become more viable and interesting with the upgradation of the English Language Lab, where students access audio or audio-visual materials. The technical tools stimulate and aid the learners to acquire language proficiency. The wireless headsets, microphones and web-assisted recordings assist the learners in the language learning process of communication. All the Part-II English students attend the Communication Classes in the Language Lab.
