The 48th College Day celebration was marked with reverberating programmes performed by an ardent group of 135 participants. Dr. B.Vanitha, Registrar (In-Charge), Bharathiar University was the chief guest for the event on 10.03.2018. The invocation to Lord Shiva by the classical dancers was an array of footsteps incorporated with fine and sharp gestures. A mime on Mahabharatha was the best of its kind and the English drama portraying Cupid's love for Psyche mesmerized the onlookers. A dance performance on Krishna Leela, the western dance laced with hip-hop style and the folk dance embraced with the traditional Oyilattam and Parai glued the audience to their seats. Our musical band with 6 singers and 3 instrument players drew the audience's favour. A parade of girls with apparels designed by our designers from the Dept. of Costume Design Fashion displayed the fashion of today. Altogether it offered the spectators with a cornucopia of events.

Fine Arts Club works with the drive of tapping out the aesthetic sense of the learners. Providing a platform to showcase the artistic prowess of the learners, Talent show for the year 2016-2017 was organized on 13.08.2016 to prove themselves in the diverse genres of dance, drama, singing and mime. With a great zeal, 125 participants eagerly exposed their flair with a highly commendable teamwork and dressiness.

A cultural programme was rendered by 40 ardent participants to entertain and revitalize the elderly minds of Home for Aged, Thindal, on 20.09.2016. The eve was arranged by the Home to celebrate and thank the staff members with 25 years of service for the young-minded inmates. Students amused the audience with old folk forms, songs and games taking them back to their yester years.

Fine Arts Competitions were organized on 04.01.2016 to test the skills and interest of the students towards arts. Their orientation with traditions and ethnicity was revealed through a parade of Bridal Make-ups. They exhibited the knowingness and interest on the festivities of Tamilnadu in bringing alive the Pongal celebrations through myriad Rangoli patterns and themes. Students also contested in Dramatization, Group Dance and Solo-singing exhibiting their concern in social and cultural issues.

The 47th Annual Day of the college celebrated on 18.03.17 was marked with variegated events from 170 participants. It began with the traditional Bharathanatyam invocation to Lord Arthanareeswara thereby also stressing gender equality. Our silent talkers pantomimed the importance of water conservation through their gestures. With the western dancers rocking the stage in hip-hop style, the tribal dance of the Badugas reawakened our ethnic base and culture. Tamil drama transported Yamadeva and Chitrugupta to our planet to accentuate the demerits of plastics. Enactment of the Shakespearean comedy-Twelfth Night brought giggles and cheers in the audience's faces. The parade of 40 models with traditional and trendy wears designed by our Vellalites marked true craftsmanship. On a first of its kind, our musical band embracing 6 singers and 3 instrument players feasted our ears and minds with songs ranging from yesteryear to the latest hits. The folk dancers encompassed the primary art forms of Tamilnadu-Karagam, Silambam and Mankombu fight with their dance. The cultural shower in fact left an indelible mark in the minds of the viewers.
