POST GRADUATE & RESEARCH DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

UGC Funded One Day International Symposium on Strategic Position of South India in Maritime Trade

03.04.2018

Report

The Post Graduate and Research Department of History signed an MoU with Tamil University, Thanjavur. In this connection the department organized UGC Funded One Day International Symposium on Strategic Position of South India in Maritime Trade on 03.04.2018. Maritime history is the study of human interaction with their activity in the sea. It is the broad overarching subject that includes fishing, whaling, international maritime law, naval history, the history of ships, ship design, ship building, history of navigation and the various maritime-related sciences. Also deals trade, shipping, yachting, seaside resorts, the history of light houses and aids to navigation, maritime themes in literature, maritime themes in art, the social history of sailors and passengers and sea-related communities.

In the Inaugural session Dr.P.Karthika, Assistant Professor & Head welcomed the gathering and introduced the Resource Persons. Dr.D.Kamalaveni, Principal, Vellalar College for Women, Erode, in her Presidential Address highlighted the importance of Maritime Trade of the ancients.

The first technical session was chaired by Dr.S.Rajavelu, Professor, Department of Maritime History and Marine Archaeology, Tamil University, Thanjavur. He delivered a lecture on Maritime Contacts of Tamils through the Ages: Recent Findings. He also opened up with the commercial contacts of East and West during the ancient times. Also he explained the entry of the Europeans into South India for trade through Indian Ocean. He emphasised on literary, epigraphical and numismatical sources including Tamil Anthologies that are helpful for the study of maritime trade activities. His correlation of the iconic features of Lord Muruga with Cheran Senguttuvan and Pallavas were unique to hear and learn. He elaborated the types of Roman, German and Egyptian coins that are found in South India especially Kongu Region proved the trade of the South Indian people with the people of Europe and South East Asian countries. His insistence on the necessity of learning South Indian history was a remarkable one. The elaborate details given by him about the dynasties of Chera, Chola and Pandya and their first and second capitals proved that they have used these capitals as the important trade centers.

In the second technical session, Dr.K.M. Rohitha Dasanayaka, Senior Lecturer, Department of History, University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka enlightened the participants on the topic "Ship Building in the Indian Ocean during the Medieval Period". In his speech, he enunciated about the ideas and thoughts revealed by various writers and travelers regarding the non usage of iron anchor and the damages caused due to the sinking of ships in the Indian Ocean. He also stressed that the treasures of the past has sunk in the ocean while being transported in the ships are still left there undiscovered by modern man.

In the third technical session, Dr.R.Poongundran, Assistant Director (Retd), Tamil Nadu State Department of Archaeology, Chennai revealed on the topic "Ancient Trade Routes in Kongu Region". His enunciation on the topics of KonguNadu and its trade route gave a wide spread knowledge to the participants. His insistence on the four long road which were interconnected and was in usage for more than two thousand five hundred years ago, treasures of unearthed hidden minerals , trade contacts of Romans with the Cheras through the Long roads which were connected between east and the west, mentions in Sangam Literature about the mineral resources in Kongu Region, group life lead by the people of Kongu Region, findings of Roman jewellery, ornaments and coins were clearly and elaborately explained through power point presentation.

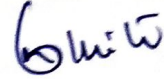

The Resource Persons have said ancient Tamil literature and excavations provide evidence about the existence of such ports that played a major role in overseas trade in the past. Another key navigation route in the south was through the west coast in the Arabian Sea. Romans sailed through the sea, disembarking at 'Musuri' port in Kerala. "Thereafter, foreign traders travelled till Coimbatore and split to different directions of Tamil Nadu from there. This is why several Roman coins and artefacts were discovered in the 'Kongu' region of Tamil Nadu. Artefacts like huge pots, used by Romans to transport wine, were also unearthed during the excavations.

In the Valedictory Session, Dr. Dr.R.Kuppusamy, Principal, Nandha College of Arts & Science, Erode has mentioned about the importance of our ancient culture and tradition. He said that the Indians were the first people who used silk and pottery. He also illustrated the artefacts belonging to Kongu Region are exhibited in the London museum. Pot shreds with Brahmi Script found in Kongu Region are of great importance. Pot Shreds anywhere found in India doesn't have any script. He also gave a comparative statement by stating that the ancient people of Kongu Region were well equipped in art of writing than the people living in other Regions of India. The Staff members, Research Scholars and Students from various colleges received the certificates. Through this programme, a total number of 261 including Staff Members and Students were benefitted.

The VCW Journals provide a platform for academicians and researchers across the globe to share their research findings. The college entered into an agreement with Informatics Publishing Limited (IPL), Bangalore, to use its technology platform for e-publishing in the digital portal i-scholar.in for online hosting of the Journals yielding world wide access and also to avail of pre-publishing services as well as promotional activities. The journals are prefixed with Digital Object Identifier (DOI) for all the articles that are published in each issue to lend authenticity to the published content. All the three refereed biannual VCW Journals (HUSS, ScieXplore and FoodSci) had their online launch on 10th September 2014 in i-scholar.in.
