IQAC of Vellalar College for Women organized a FDP-cum-Motivational Programme for the teachers on 08.08.2019 at Conference Hall. Captain ShashidharanThambuswamy (Ex. Indian Army) was the Inspirational speaker who energized the teachers on "Can the Eagles Fly". The Speech focused on handling critical situations mentally, physically and socially which is a need of the hour for those who are handling the adolescent youth in the classrooms who are characterized by inconstancy and unpredictability. It was a breezy moment for many of the teachers and the sense of appreciation was expressed in a burst of applause.

On 26.09.2019, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and Intellectual Property Rights Cell (IPR) jointly organized a special lecture on "Evolve your Invention to sculpt your Ideas." The main objective of the programme was to simulate the creation of intellectual property and make the faculty explore new ideas. Dr. E. Murugan, Assistant Professor of Electronics, Hindusthan College of Arts & Science, Coimbatore, was the guest speaker. He gave comprehensive details on e-filing to apply for patent. He spoke in detail on the patent types, complete specification and provisional. He explained about obtaining digital signature and presented complete information on e-mudra and ipindia e- filing. He delivered a gamut of information related to Form 1,2,5,9 & 18 which was of phenomenal usage to the participants. The programme ended with a positive outcome of expanding the participants' knowledge on building intellectual property.

The IQAC and IPR jointly organized a Guest Lecture on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and Filing Provisional Patent in India on 18.10.2019. Dr.P.Sivaprakasam, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Physics, Sri Vasavi College, Erode, was the guest speaker. He spoke on the importance of invention which may be a tool, a mechanical gadget, a concept or an idea that will impact or improve humanity as a whole. He encouraged the participants to engage in inventive activities and detailed on how effective patent protection stimulates research. He stressed the significance of getting patents which is a protection for intellectual assents and to avoid duplication. He explained the need to file patent applications early to avoid the risk that someone else has obtained or will obtain a patent on the same idea. The participants got a clear idea of the process involved in filing the provisional patents. The beneficiaries were 47 faculties belonging to various disciplines.

A week-long programme was organized by IQAC of Vellalar College for Women from 21.10.2019 to 27.10.2019. It was titled IQAC-Express and the theme was "Examination Preparedness Systems for Students". An assemblage of experienced professors from our institution enthused the students to get, set and go for the examinations. Dr.N.Sabitha of the Department of Nutrition & Dietetics, Dr.S.K.Kavitha of the Department of Chemistry, Ms.D.Mercy Lydia of the Department of Library and Information Science, Dr.N.Maragatham, Principal, Dr.R.Parvathi of the Department of Mathematics, Dr.V.Renugadevi of the Department of Commerce and Dr.E.SSamundeeswari of the Department of Computer Science as well as the Controller of Examinations highlighted on "Physical and Mental Fitness for Exams", "Let's LEARN Science", "Me and My Strength", "Mind Mapping", "You can Win", "Enjoy your Exam" and "Examination Rules", Do's and Don'ts respectively. The Whole Programme was a mind-opener for the students to trample the fears and challenge generally associated with the examinations.

IQAC of Vellalar College for Women organized a counseling session for the supporting staff on 21.01.2020 in the Conference Hall. The Resource Person, elucidated on "Interpersonal Relationship". He clarified Interpersonal Relationship in terms of family, friends, relatives and office and stressed that one has to nurture healthy communication in all relationships to make it a part of his genetic structure. This requires constant structuration of qualities like – be positive, know your boundaries, avoid gossiping, take responsibility and accept your failure. The speaker observed that the integration of these qualities with oft-expressed phrases like please, Thank You, I'm Sorry would make any work spot a pleasant and a peaceful one.

IQAC in coordination with PG & Research Department of Botany and PG Department of Foods & Nutrition organized a UGC sponsored outreach - workshop on Training and Project Awareness - MANAV on 13.02.2020 at conference hall. Dr AnumpaHarshal, Kathak NrityaVisharad Team, MANAV (IISER, Pune) was the resource person and she spoke extensively on major classes of scientific literature and suggested that Faculty, Students and Research Scholar would benefit a lot by registering with MANAV. Her exploration into the working of human body and designing of better therapeutic targets has been inspiring to the life sciences faculty and students from the host institutions and the Five Mentee institutions.
