2.6.2 Attainment of programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution

Strategies for Direct Assessment

- The CGPA score as a benchmark for attainment of Specific Course Objectives
- Timely Completion of portions through participative pedagogic practices
- Formative and Summative assessments systematically monitor and analyse the attainment of learning outcomes
- 25% weightage allotted for assessment through Assignments, Seminars, Projects, Models, Group Discussion and Library work which facilitate multiskill development
- Marks of two CIA tests and Model Examinations converted to 25% weightage
- Summative Examinations for all Courses to 75% marks
- Summative Examination results and the pass percentage are discussed in the Result Passing Board to effectuate remedial measures for the slow learners and low achievers
- Result Statistics in the form of Histograms and Graphs to plan the remedial measures like Supplementary Examinations, Revaluation and Academic Counselling which enhance the attainment of POs and Cos
- Teaching methodology subsumes traditional methods, ICT tools, Internships and Projects, and the knowledge and skill attainment assessed at the end of the semester from K1 to K7 Proactive Tools for Indirect Assessment
- Feedback from Course Exit Survey
- Student Progression feedback from the faculty incharge of the course
- Feedback from Alumnae and Subject experts

- Feedback from Industry experts on employability skills, internships, research aptitude and Interdisciplinary knowledge (NME and SBS)
- Cracking Qualifying Exams and Competitive Examinations like NET/SET/TET and TNPSC

Justification:

Outcome based Education was introduced during the Academic Year 2018-19. The CO-PO attainment is evaluated by all the departments after the publication of End Semester Examinations results and CO-PO mapping is as expected. Hence, it is requested to boost the given score.
