6.2.2 The functioning of the institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from policies, administrative setup, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

Well-structured parts making up a well-structured system ensures absolute growth.

Statutory Bodies

The Statutory Bodies of the Institution consist of The Governing Body ,The Academic Council, The Boards of Studies, IQAC, The Finance Committee steer the affairs of the Institution through planning and monitoring and provide framework for drafting institutional policies, launching of new programmes, curriculum restructuring, sanctioning of posts and appointments and ratification and approval of the audited accounts and budgets.

Non-Statutory Committees

The Non-statutory Committees comprise of Staff Council, Student Council, Planning Committee, Examination Committee, Research Committee, Students Grievance Redressal Committee, Games Committee plan, work and organise activities in consultation with the Principal. The discussions, suggestions and decisions of the Committees are minuted and attested by the members.

The other Non-statutory Bodies focus on maintenance and sustenance of academic, non-academic, co- curricular, extra-curricular, cultural and extension activities. This top-down and bottom-up interaction of the organogram facilitates smooth functioning of participative mechanism in taking the institution to greater heights.

The appointments, service rules, procedures and promotional policies are guided by UGC recommendations and regulations of the state of Tamil Nadu and Affiliating University. The administrative wing records the recruitment procedures, service rules and pay revision.
