7.1.9. Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens (within 500 words)

Constitution of India establishes and ensures values and rights as objectives in the Preamble. These objectives subsume moral values.

- The moral values are instilled through Special lectures, Conferences, Workshops and Extension Activities with the objective of shaping students as responsible global citizens
- Constitution Day, Independence Day, Republic Day, Sarvodaya Day as Martyr's Day and Flag day are celebrated
- Voter Awareness programme is conducted by NSS and YRC to educate students about democratic responsibilities
- Lectures on Legal Literacy on and off campus make students and villagers aware of their rights and responsibilities
- Centre for Gandhian Thoughts has organized programmes to promote Gandhian Thoughts and principles and to practice ahimsa
- Everyday classes start with morning prayers followed by Current News, Thought for the Day and one Thirukural with meaning
- In the close-knit mentor-mentee system, teachers become second parents inculcating values and guiding them to become compassionate citizens
- Our motto "Ulluvathellam Uyarvulla!" (Let our thoughts be noble ones) emphasizes that high thinking builds equality, liberty, fraternity among all stakeholders

- National Energy Conservation Day, National Girl Child Day, World Day of Social Justice, Self Help Day, World Wildlife Day, World Breast-feeding Week and Handloom Day are celebrated to make students understand their rights, duties and responsibilities provided by the Constitution

Justification:

In a bid to create chiseling nation builders of noble attitude and morally responsible citizens, the HEI promotes an apt and appropriate platform for ethical, cultural and spiritual values among the students.

The moral values are instilled through special lectures, conferences, workshops and extension activities with the objective of shaping students as responsible global citizens by sensitizing Constitutional Obligations. The Preamble of our Constitution is showcased in the front office of the HEI. Other evidences and supporting documents are maintained by the HEI. Hence, it is requested to consider revising the score.
